11	Raj Jaysukhbhai Vachhani	Teacher's day is celebrated to express our gratitude and appreciate the hard work of our Teachers.Teachers' Day in india is observed on the birthday of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan that falls on 5th of September every year.This great son of India was a teacher and later he became the Vice-President of Indian Republic.On the death of Dr. Rajendra Prasad, the first President of India, Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan became the President.Teacher's day is celebrated every year on 5th September. It is celebrated on the auspicious occasion of Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan birthday. The purpose of this celebration is to pay respect to the teachers. It is believed that today's students will be the future of tomorrow, And a teacher is who makes the future of a student bright. So a teacher is a very respective person in our society. Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was a teacher himself. He used to love his teacher very much and when he became president of India, some of his student and friend requested him to allow them to celebrate his birthday on 5th September.We, the students, are very proud to pay our respect to that great Teacher-President on this day. We pay our respect to our own teachers as well. Our teachers inspire us the same way as Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan inspired his students. They love us and are always anxious to help us.He replied, "instead of celebrating my birthday it would be a proud privilege if September 5th is observed as teacher's day". From then on words, we celebrate every year 5th September as teacher's day. A teacher stands as the backbone of the student in their life. The teacher teaches us to walk on the right path by carrying the right things. A teacher is the second parent of the students. We all have grown up and now understand their value in our lives and can't imagine a beautiful future without their guidance. A good teacher will punish us as well as will love us. I being a teacher want to share values with students. I want to make things understand very clearly to the students, This way I want to serve this whole country in a better way. Hope to fulfil my dream to be a good teacher in my life.	09265033921	Second Year	B.Com
