

REPUBLIC DAY CAMP

Republic Day Camp (RDC) was held in delhi under the aegis of HQ DG NCC where hundreds of cadets from all over India came to participate in various events i.e Rajpath March Past, Guard of Honour, PM's Rally and Best Cadet Competition.

The RDC cadets had been selected after several rounds of screening at group and directorate level. Then after the contingent of each directorate went to Delhi to participate in RDC -21.

A student from GUJARAT COMMERCE COLLEGE named Underofficer SADHU JAY had been selected for that camp and attended also. First he passed several camps held at NCC Group Headquarter, Ahmedabad, of Group and Directorate level. The camps were Inter-battalion, IGC, Pre-RD1, Pre-RD2, Pre-RD3 and finally reached to RDC-21 at Delhi.

All cadets on reaching the RDC location were quarantined for fourteen days. All Covid precautions as per SOP, like wearing mask all the time, maintaining social distance, staggered dinner timing etc. were strictly followed. Before any major event, all the cadets underwent RT-PCR test.

The Prime Minister's Rally is the most prestigious event of the NCC RDC held on 28th January which gave the opportunity to march in front of our honourable Prime Minister. Contingents from all State NCC Directorate participated in the march past. Underofficer Sadhu Jay represented Gujarat Directorate in that rally. The event was witnessed by number of dignitaries that include Raksha Mantri, Raksha Rajya Mantri, three services chiefs, DG NCC and Defence Secretary.

Representing one's particular directorate in a particular event at a national level competition boosts the zeal and enthusiasm of the cadet.
