- i) SPIPA has right to carry out inspection of the classes and the library. The same should not be considered as trespass. GCC should allow SPIPA official to reach classes and library without any restrictions.
- ii) GCC shall submit details of expenses incurred with evidences on quarterly basis. Any irregularities found or saving is found, the same shall be refunded to the SPIPA. Alternatively, SPIPA may adjust such amount from the future payments.

355108

- iii) Liabilities of the Parties under this agreement shall be restricted to the matters mentioned in this agreement only.
- iv) There shall be no obligation on either Party after the expiration of the Agreement or the termination of the Agreement, except in relation to the undischarged liabilities in existence, if any.
- v) Payments to be made by SPIPA to GCC shall be subject to statutory deductions like Income Tax, GST, TDS and other applicable taxes.
- vi) No amendment or modification hereto shall be valid and effective unless expressly previously approved in writing by the Parties and executed by their Authorised Representatives.
- vii) This MOA is binding to both the parties.

(5) Period:

This MoA is for a period of 11(Eleven) months starting from 1st November, 2022 to 30th September, 2023. Renewal thereafter will be on mutual consent at same or different set of conditions. Moreover, due to any of the reasons/circumstances which may arise in future, this MoA shall be terminated with one month's prior notice, as and when necessary.

(6) Notices:

1. Both the parties have the right to terminate this MoA anytime by serving a prior notice of 1 (one) month.
2. Notices shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been received if delivered in person, on the same day; if sent by facsimile (followed by mailing of the original), 24 hours after transmission; if sent by internationally recognized courier service, three (3) days after deposit with the courier; or if sent by registered mail, five (5) days after deposit into the mail system, in each case to the address set forth in the preamble to this MoA and as follows:

If to SPIPA: Attention: Director General

If to GCC: Attention: Principal, GCC

The Parties agree that any disputes arising under this MoA shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts at Ahmedabad and that this MoA shall be constructed according to and subject to the laws of India. The parties further stipulate that any dispute with regard to the interpretation of any term of this MoA, or with to any rights or liabilities of the parties arising out of this MoA, or in any way connected with this MoA shall be referred to arbitration of a sole arbitrator to be appointed mutually by parties. The arbitration proceeding shall be held at Ahmedabad under Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996. If any provision of this MoA is held unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, that provision shall be severed and shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.

(7) Force Majeure

This MoA is subject to usual Force Majeure clause preventing the parties to discharge their obligations which includes incidents by fire, act of God, riot or other civil commotion. Enemy action and/or other causes not within the control of parties and in such cases neither party is liable to pay compensation, claims and/or damages to any other party. Any Change in Law, which has a material adverse effect on the Parties hereto, shall be considered as force majeure. Outbreak of Covid-19 waves shall be considered as force majeure, only if competent authority does not allow classes to run. However, GCC shall strive to run classes online, if permitted. However, in such an exigency, GCC shall be paid such Amounts as would have been incurred by it subject to overall ceiling of disburse/sanctioned Amounts. Actual Amounts of electricity bills subject to above ceiling be paid.

- To avoid any confusion, any change, in the obligations of either party as agreed hereinabove, shall be in writing and subject to mutual consent.
- Both parties will work in the spirit of partnership for the success of all the programs/events.

359/19

(8) Change in Law:

Change of Law means the occurrence of any of the following after the date of this Agreement:

- (i) The enactment of any new Indian law;
- (ii) The repeal, modification or re-enactment of any existing Indian law;
- (iii) The commencement of any Indian law which has not entered into effect until the date of this Agreement;
- (iv) a change in the interpretation of application of any Indian law by a court of record as compared to such interpretation or application by a court of record prior to the date of this Agreement; or
- (v) Any change in the rates of any of the Taxes, cess or levies.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this MoA, the GCC shall not be liable to reimburse the SPIPA any sums on account of any change in Taxes.

(9) Disputes

Any dispute, difference or controversy of whatever nature arising under, out of or in relation to this Agreement between the Parties and so notified in writing by either Party to the other (the "Dispute") in the first instance shall be attempted to be resolved amicably.

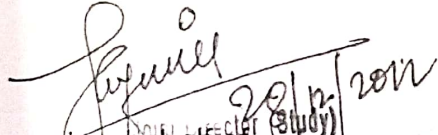

Any Dispute, which is not resolved amicably as provided in the above within a period of forty-five (45) days from the date on which one Party notified the other Party of the Dispute, shall be finally decided by reference to arbitration by sole Arbitrator appointed by mutual consent of the parties. Such arbitration shall be subject to the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. However, if both the parties fail to arrive at the consent for the name of arbitrator then the matter should be referred to High Court of Gujarat who shall appoint Arbitrator. The reasoned award of Arbitrator shall be final and binding to both the parties. The expenses of the Arbitration shall be equally born by both the parties. The venue of such arbitration shall be Ahmedabad, Gujarat and the language of such arbitration shall be English.

(10) Jurisdiction:
