“POCSO ACT”

Event- Seminar on POCSO ACT

Day & Date- 27th September 2023

Timing- 11 AM – 1 PM

Venue- Seminar Hall, Gujarat Commerce College Campus

Co-ordinator- Dr. Rina Shah

OBJECTIVES OF SEMINAR:

- Awareness of POCSO ACT
- To protect children from offenses of sexual assault
- Address offences of sexual exploitation and sexual abuse of children

A seminar was organized by Gujarat Commerce College, Ahmedabad on 27 September 2023 under CWDC. The theme of the seminar was “Protection of children under Sexual offences”. Well-known speaker Dr. Anjana Dave enunciated the subject in such a manner to reach students’ hearts. The contents of the POCSO Act were explained in detail using a power point presentation. One of the objectives of the seminar was to provide guidance with ways to deal with the traumatic experiences of children that often shut down the human psyche. A child who has experienced such a violation and the person who is in a position to provide support often tend to shut down mentally, a common response to significant trauma.

The Seminar then transitioned into the subjective experiences and feelings of a child in the face of abuse. This portion addressed some of the defense mechanisms, psychological processes (trauma, zoning out, aggression, over compliance, compromised memory/cognition), regressive social structures (victim blaming/shaming, gender, sexual taboos, lack of sex education), thought processes and the perpetrator’s psychological make-up. All these factors contribute to a culture of shame and silence around reporting abuse. More than 90 students were participated in this seminar.

The students’ feedback was taken on the <http://sur1.li/sdyrv> Google link.

Report of CWDC
Awareness Programme for Menstrual Hygiene
Date: 30/03/2022

Though there is openness of thoughts in today's life, the people do not talk openly for menstrual hygiene. Under the aegis of CWDC, our college has taken an initiative to introduce adolescent girls for understanding of how to use pad vending machine as well as how to dispose that pad. Students are encouraged to use high quality sanitary napkins instead of cloth pads. College also ensures safe disposal of Sanitary Napkins in an environmentally friendly manner. The committee members of CWDC explained and demonstrated practically to the girls about how to use vending machine as well as how to dispose the used pad. Disposable sanitary pads (of good quality) are undoubtedly a safe and hygienic option for managing menstruation. After the COVID – 19 college has again so many girls who are taking benefit of higher education are new to the college as they were learning through online mode only. Dr. Sheela Bhadani took an initiative and decided to demonstrate how to use the pad vending machine. The committee members explained them first of all why hygiene is important. Then demonstrated use of vending machine.

Report of Event organized on 21st October 2020 under CWDC

Gender disparities are no longer silent subjects. Education is the biggest field to introduce any massive change in society. With the spreading of awareness about gender discrimination at all levels, we find many self-sustaining and crowd drawing movements by young leaders of colleges. Legal measures have also made their way into colleges and other institutions. One of them is Women Development Cells (WDC). The aim and objective of the Collegiate Women Development Cell (CWDC) is to prevent sexual harassment at workplace and to promote general wellbeing of female students, teaching and non-teaching women staff in college. The cell is also responsible to undertake the awareness programmes on gender sensitization, women rights and women empowerment in college.

Our college invited Dr. Seema Kashyap, Lecturer, Government B. Ed, College, DIET, Ahmedabad and she delivered a very nice talk on “Women – Self Existence and Society” through Microsoft Teams which was live streamed on facebook on 21st October, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. The programme was anchored by Dr. Hemali Shah, the chairperson of CWDC. Our principal, Dr. Jyotsnaben Patel introduced our eminent speaker. Vote of thanks was given by Dr. Sonal Solanki, member of the committee and technical support was provided by Shri Vipul Shyara, technical assistant of the college. This COVID – 19 pandemic has affected the life of the people. The work from home has made life stressful for women. Due to lockdown, the maid for household chores was not possible. It was necessary for the other members of the family to share the household chores. Many times, it happens that the female of the family ignores her own food for the sake of the adjustments of household chores and the different roles which she plays in the family. So, first of all, female has to love herself and give priority to herself. She needs to take care of herself first. We need to give trust to our daughters not to bear any injustice even after marriage and say them that parents are always with her to support. Women must be selfish, love herself, stop comparing herself with others, and know her own worth. Women must not worry about others opinions.

Report of CWDC

Academic Year 2019-20

As per the norms of the Government of Gujarat and Gujarat University, each recognized college was required to set up a Collegiate Women's Development Cell (CWDC) to deal with complaints of any kind of harassment, including sexual harassment. CWDC organizes annual programmes, seminars, workshops and meetings regarding Women's Development and any kind of Harassment, to propagate against sexual harassment amongst Managements, students and employees of the colleges and recognized institutions and for that purpose to invite experts or resource persons. CWDC creates awareness among the girls about their rights as well as laws related to safety, dowry, harassment, domestic violence etc. Even CWDC organizes seminars for health awareness of girl students as well as their educational and social upliftment.

To serve this purpose, our college organized informative and inspirational talk on "common health hazards among college students: Its prevention and management" on 6th July, 2019 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. The information shared by Dr. Shailaja Patel, Assistant Professor, Shree B.G. Patel College of Physiotherapy, Anand is really helpful for mental as well as physical health. She also gave demonstration of exercise which can help to improve the health with small exercises at home and office. She also explained which food should be taken to maintain the health without any oral supplements of vitamins. She also taught how to keep body posture at time of sitting, standing as well as sleeping so that joint pains can be avoided in future. There are three enemies of health: stress, smoking and inactiveness. Prayer is crucial for mental health. Total 178 students participated in this programme.
